How You Can Help

We are a Volunteer Run Organization. We have virtually no overhead costs. Our 300+ dedicated volunteers pick up, purchase, prepare, and serve all meals. They also clean and maintain our kitchen and dining room.

Typical Cost

The typical cost for a meal is between $1.50 - $1.80, so your generosity goes a long way in making a difference in the lives of the good people in our community.

About Our Daily Bread

Our Daily Bread was formed in 2012 to help address the growing problem of food insecurity in our region.

We are the only Soup Kitchen in the Middletown, Odessa, and Townsend area.

We currently cook and serve over 3000 hot meals a month.

In addition to serving hot meals, we also distribute 35-50 bags of food to those in need in our community each week and provide food and drinks 24/7 through the Community Fridge on premise.

We are a volunteer run organization with virtually no overhead costs. Over 300 Volunteers help us purchase food, pick up and pack up donations, prepare and serve meals and clean our dining room and kitchen after our guests have been served.

Twenty local organizations, houses of worship, and businesses partner with us to purchase and prepare meals for our guests. These partnerships are crucial to our operations.
